

There is 1 DTO for each business object in the system.

The DTOs contain only the fields as appears in the business logic and have no functionality.

The DTO objects are used to present data to the presentation and to transfer data from and to the DAL.

All business controllers are associated to their respective DAOs

